

GOLF FEATURES (High-quality golf feature packages with top-class photography)

Countries Covered: Australia, Austria, Barbados, Belgium, Canada, Chile, Denmark, Dominican Republic, England, Europe, France, Iceland, Ireland, Jamaica, Lithuania, Morocco, Northern Ireland, Norway, Portugal, Scotland, Spain, Sweden, USA, Various.

For more information contact: andy\_jmarshall@yahoo.co.uk

AUSTRALIA

"Golf among the grapes" (1200 words)

Victoria's Mornington Peninsula offers a vineyard haven for golfers. We head Down Under to experience golf among the grapes.

"Queensland to a Tee" (1100 plus Off-Course attractions)

Tropical North Queensland is best known for the twin natural wonders of the Great Barrier Reef and World Heritage Rainforest, but what are its golf courses like?

AUSTRIA

"Alpine Pars & Spas" (1000 & 1500 words)

A new world of golf awaits you in western Austria. Ski in the morning, play 18 holes in the afternoon, then indulge in a relaxing massage or bubbling spa - a golfing trip for the mind, body and soul...

BARBADOS

"Golf & the Caribbean Spirit" (1900 words)

The island of Barbados, twenty-one miles by fourteen, dangles on the far-eastern tip of the Caribbean Island chain, a coral bump along a volcanic necklace. Long been a favourite playground for the rich and famous, there's more to this tiny tropical beauty than sea, sand and sunshine. For starters there's some top-shelf golf. Play the course where Tiger got married, or the 18-holes with one of the world's best collection of Par 3s, then relive your round over a glass of rum -the island's liquid gold.

BELGIUM

"Beers & Birdies" (1700 words)

Golf and beer' - some things in life are just meant to go together and few places combine these twin pleasures quite like Belgium. Brothers ANDREW & PAUL MARSHALL sink a few putts and a few brews on a golfing journey through the historic Flanders' region.

CANADA

"Sea to Sky Golf" (1500 & 1800 words)

WITH NATURAL BEAUTY THAT EXTENDS FROM THE SEA TO THE SKY, THE CANADIAN PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA PROVIDES THE PERFECT BACKDROP FOR GOLF.

"Tee Shots & Lobster Pots" (2000 words)

After crossing the spectacular 13km Confederations Bridge we arrive on Prince Edward Island (known locally as PEI), our final destination for a weeklong gourmet golf experience - playing six of the island's best courses, staying in top-drawer accommodation and sampling some of the planet's finest seafood. Only 280km from tip-to-tip, Canada's tiniest province certainly packs a punch in the world of golf. Ten of PEI's 26 golf courses are ranked in the Top 100 courses in Canada and all are located within a 45 minutes drive of each other.

CARIBBEAN

"Caribbean Greens" (1000, 1200 & 1600 words)

During the last decade, golf courses have been growing in the Caribbean faster than the island's lush tropical vegetation. From Barbados to the Bahamas, top-drawer layouts bear the stamps of noted architects such as Robert Trent Jones, Pete Dye and Tom Fazio. You can almost choose a golfing destination by your cultural preferences, and with around 50 top-quality layouts, the Caribbean presents a delightful dilemma. Many courses are linked to luxury resorts where you're guaranteed the ultimate beach vacation lifestyle with romantic sunsets, pampered service and gourmet dining. Here's six of the best:

"Caribbean Greens Trio" (1600 words)

Golf on the Caribbean islands of Jamaica, Barbados and the Dominican Republic.

CHILE

"Ice Cool Golf" (750 words/Photo essay)

CHILE'S snow-covered peaks are perfect for a growing trend in extreme golf that takes those who dare to the Arctic Circle, inner cities and desert sands. ANDREW MARSHALL reports. In recent years, snow golf has become 'cool', as evidenced by the increasing number of tournaments and events that take place in areas better suited to snowshoes and skis than golf spikes. One of these is the Chivas Snow Golf Championship, which tees it up each year in the ski resort of La Larva, (located 50kms from Santiago de Chile) and stands at 2,700 meters above sea level.

DENMARK

"Beer and Birdies in Copenhagen" (1000 & 1500 words)

ANDREW & PAUL MARSHALL sink a few putts and a few pints in and around Copenhagen. 'Golf and beer' - some things in life are just meant to go together and few places combine these twin pleasures quite like Copenhagen, one of Scandinavia's liveliest and most vibrant cities. With a rich beer culture and over 30 courses within an hour's drive of the city, the Danish capital is the perfect destination for a four-day golf and pub/brewery break:

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

"Pars and Cigars"(1800 words)

The Dominican Republic is a superb destination for the aficionado of top-notch cigars and challenging tropical golf - two elements of the 'good life' that naturally go hand in hand.

ENGLAND

"Atlantic Golfing-Cornwall Coast" (1200 words)

A golf trip that embraces a cluster of challenging links courses along the Atlantic coast, between the picturesque harbor towns of St Ives and Padstow - 46 miles of top-notch golf with a uniquely Cornish seaside flavor.

"Golfing the Garden County" (1600 words)

ANDREW MARSHALL heads to the 'Garden County', home to the 2011 Open Championship to sample some of the best English golf.

"Roast Beef & Yorkshire Putting" (1800 words plus off-course attractions)

From windswept moors, rugged coastline to verdant dales criss-crossed with limestone walls and the gritty Pennine district, England's largest county cannot fail to inspire. The good news for golfers is that Yorkshire is also home to some of the country's finest courses and offers a great mix of heathland, moorland, cliff-top and parkland tracks...

"Golfing the Castle Coast – Northumberland" (1500 words)

A golf trip spent meandering along narrow country lanes in Northumberland, past medieval castles that perch on rocky headlands, into colorful fishing villages and alongside wild windswept beaches, to sample a chain of wonderful golf courses that remain virtually untouched by the nation's golfers.

EUROPE

"5-Star Euro Golf" (1000 & 1700 words)

Golfing in Europe presents a delightful dilemma. What country and where to play? Many courses are linked to luxury resorts where you're guaranteed the ultimate golf vacation lifestyle with pampered service, spa treatments, gourmet dining and top-quality golf. Here are five of Europe's best 5-star golf resorts:

"Around Europe in 10 Courses" (1450 words)

You know you are a fan of the game when you start planning your travels around the world's top courses and Europe has its fair share. No two countries are alike with a rich variety of customs, cuisines, music, architecture and language. Throw in some fine scenery and some good accommodation and you have a perfectly packaged golf holiday. Here's a half-dozen selection of Europe's best golf courses to swing a club...

"19th hole tipples" (2000 words)

A game of golf just isn't complete without a post round tipple at the 19th hole. Discussing the highs and lows of the round, like reaching a par-5 in two or holing a snaking downhill putt from long range become legend over a refreshing pint of beer in the clubhouse or a wee nip of whiskey in a local bar. Golfing brothers ANDREW & PAUL MARSHALL play golf in six countries and then enjoy their unique liquid refreshments...

"Around Europe in 18 Holes" (1800 words)

Every golfer has their favorite golf holes, ones that stay firmly etched in the memory long after playing. With this concept in mind, we travel throughout Europe to play a composite layout made up of six par3's, six par-4's and six par-5's from a variety of courses featuring some of the most scenic, atmospheric and challenging golf holes...

"European Tour" ( 2000 words)

Rich in customs, cuisines, architecture and language, no two countries in Europe are alike. Add in some fine scenery, interesting off-course attractions and you have a perfectly packaged golf trip. Book your airline ticket and golf base, pack your golf clubs and get ready to unleash your inner Rory McIlroy at five of these European locations... FRANCE- Normandy, SPAIN – Mallorca, LITHUANIA - Vilnius, SWEDEN – Stockholm, PORTUGAL -Oeste region,

FRANCE

"Teeing off in Calvados & Cheese Country" (1800 words)

The Pays gauge region is known for the superior quality of its local produce - a land where some of France's finest cheeses such as Camembert, are made alongside highly-prized drinks such as Calvados; a fiery apple brandy that has been distilled with typical French passion for more than four hundred years. This slice of France is also blessed with a selection of fine golf courses, and for the gourmet golfer who enjoys a tipple, the good news is that between tee-times, there's ample opportunity to learn about, taste and purchase some of the fine local produce.

"Golf, Châteaux & Champagnes" (1500 words)

Around 100km from Paris in the northeast of France, is the historical province of Champagne-Ardenne, best known for its production of the world's most famous sparkling wine. But it's not just the grape that reigns supreme here – there's 'golf among the grapes', with a collection of challenging and affordable courses for players of all abilities and some beautiful stately homes and châteaux to spend the night. These three elements of the 'good life' that compliment each other, can provide a strong focus for visiting the region – enjoy a few rounds of golf, taste the champagne and stay at the châteaux...

"Fairway Heaven" (Gourmet Golf in Champagne – Ardenne & Normandy)(1500 & 1000 words)

No matter where you golf in France, there's bound to be a stunning château and lashings of gourmet choices close by. Andrew Marshall tees off at the choicest greens of Champagne-Ardenne and Normandy.

ICELAND

"Golf & Geysers" (1800 words)

Golfing adventures don't come more exotic than a visit to the north Atlantic country of Iceland. With its thermal springs, erupting geysers and volcanic history, it makes for some pretty special rounds of golf.

IRELAND

"Golfing the Wild Atlantic Way" (1800 words)

Golfing brothers Andrew & Paul Marshall take a wild ride in a magical corner of the Emerald Isle to play six classic links ...The end of April in the north-west of Ireland. It's the start of our week-long golf trip from Donegal to Galway along a 550 km section of the Wild Atlantic Way - a scenic coastal touring route (with a total length of 2,500 km) dotted with beaches, harbors, headlands, stunning viewing points and some of the world's best golf courses.

"Northern Links" (1500 words)

A guide/trip to playing 6 of the best golf courses in Ireland's north ( 4 courses in Northern Ireland & 2 in Ireland: Ardglass, Portstewart, Royal Portrush, Castlerock, Ballyliffin & Rosapenna) . The feature also includes off-course attractions such as the Giant's Causeway & Bushmills whiskey distillery and places to stay to play the featured courses.

"Horses for Courses" (1500 words)

The Emerald Isle offers the twin Irish passions of golfing and horse racing set against stunning scenery and a warm welcome from the locals, report ANDREW MARSHALL & PAUL MARSHALL.

"Down in One - Dublin's Pubs & Clubs" (1890 words)

If you want to play a winning round of golf, then drink in some classic pubs afterwards, look no further than Dublin, says ANDREW MARSHALL, who offers his must-do "pubs and clubs."

"Around Ireland in 18 Courses" (2093 words)

Golf, especially links golf, comes in no greater dramatic abundance than in Ireland, and around the coastline the courses are spread like gems - created by nature and linked together to form a necklace of beauty. Adding to the golfing experience are the locals you meet at the courses, who have a tremendous gift of making you feel welcome and the wonderful 19th hole pubs to sink one or two pints of the black stuff while discussing the day's golf. Here, now is a journey starting north of Dublin and heading around the coast for 18 of the Emerald Isle's best courses...

"10 of the Best – Irish Golf Courses" (850 words)

Ten of the best...course in Ireland

"Inside the Loop - The Bagmen of Doonbeg"(1800 words- plus caddie jokes section & fact file)

Did you hear the one about the two Irish caddies standing on the first tee of a links course in County Clare? As they watch the drive of an American player, his ball slices severely to the left and flies out of sight into the dense rough. Hugh, the American's caddie says to his mate, "I'll find that one Paddy no problem." Paddy turns to Hugh and with a wry smile on his face says, "If that ball was wrapped in the best Limerick ham, even Lassie wouldn't find it!"

"Emerald Isle Golf Gems"(1500 words)

Golf, especially links golf, comes in no greater dramatic abundance than the Emerald Isle. Around the coastline the courses are spread like gems-created by nature and linked together to form a necklace of beauty. All the key ingredients are here - towering dunes, elevated greens, blind shots, deep pot bunkers, tumbling fairways, slick putting surfaces, howling winds and the taste of salt in the sea air. Some courses are old classics laid out by legendary designers such as Old Tom Morris, whilst others are relatively recent creations that still look as though they have been part of the landscape for centuries.

"A West Side Story - An Irish Golf Tour in Pictures" ( 870 words- intro, extras, fact file and detailed photo captions)

In terms of grand golf tours of the world, Ireland's wild south-west coast would be up there with the best of them. It's the start of a 7-day golf odyssey for twelve guys from Montana, Colorado and Seattle with Jerry Quinlan's Celtic Golf, taking in some of the best seaside layouts in County Cork, County Kerry and County Clare: Old Head of Kinsale, Doonbeg, Dooks, Tralee, Waterville, Lahinch and Ballybunion Old. Just uttering these names is enough to get the golfing juices flowing.

JAMAICA

"Jamaican Greens" (2000 words)

The Caribbean's largest English-speaking island Jamaica, is a feast of flavours, and the familiar fare of rum, reggae, jerk chicken, sugary sand beaches, aquamarine waters, towering palms and cheek-caressing trade winds are merely the appetisers – for the avid golfer there's top shelf golf sunny side up.

LITHUANIA

"Lithuania Golf" (1500)

Golf and attractions in and around the capital Vilnius.

MOROCCO

"Kingdom of Golf" (1700 words)

Morocco is a fascinating mosaic of cultures and traditions, desert landscapes, authentic Kasbahs, spice bazaars and sumptuous palaces. For decades it's been attracting artists, writers, travellers and more recently golfers in search of the exotic. ANDREW MARSHALL & PAUL MARSHALL tee-it-up in Marrakech and Agadir.

NORTHERN IRELAND

"Golf & Whiskey along the Causeway Coast" (1500 & 2000 words)

Northern Ireland's scenic Causeway Coast offers the tempting twin pleasures of challenging links golf and smooth Irish whiskey. ANDREW MARSHALL & PAUL MARSHALL indulge:

NORWAY

"Norwegian Woods" (1500 words)

We tee it up on a selection of golf courses in and around the capital Oslo (includes off-course attractions & activities.

PORTUGAL

"Back Nines & Port Wines" (1300 words)

Shirking the more obvious golfing destinations along Portugal's increasingly congested Algarve, the brothers Marshall headed instead for the more rustic surrounding of northern Portugal, and found some terrific golf within an hour of – you guessed it – Porto.

"A Tasty slice of Portugal" (1600 words)

Thanks to an enviable year-round climate with plenty of sunny days, Portugal has always been one of Europe's most popular golfing destinations and although the southern Algarve may have the lion's share of the courses - for the travelling golfer looking for something a little quieter and off-the-beaten-track, the Oeste region north of Lisbon is an interesting option. Alongside the golf there's plenty of off-course attractions – from numerous archaeological and historical sites to sparkling Atlantic beaches, enchanting coastal villages, excellent seafood and fine wines.

"Pars in the Algarve" (1600 words)

Portugal's Algarve region is blessed with some of continental Europe's finest golf courses..

Lively coastal resorts spill over ribbons of golden sand along an Atlantic coastline punctuated by sculpted sandstone coves, turquoise waters and picturesque fishing villages. This is the Algarve in southern Portugal - the country's playground province and one of the most popular year-round holiday destinations in southern Europe. The Moors, who dominated the Algarve for over 500 years from 711, called it the 'Al-Gharb' or the Sunset Land, and during the last few decades, countless visitors and especially golfers, have been waxing lyrical about this colourful and laid-back coastal region.

SCOTLAND

"Hickories, Smokies & Whiskies" (A golfer's guide to East Scotland)

We take a journey from Aberdeen to Edinburgh to sample a selection of courses and hotels in the East of Scotland. 9 Places to Play, 8 Places to Stay (2000 words) From some of the world's oldest golf courses, to dramatic new links and heathland gems, the East of Scotland is a top destination for the travelling golfer, say golfing brothers Andrew & Paul Marshall. Golf comes in no greater abundance than the East of Scotland. This is where the Royal and Ancient game started and every golfer wants to experience the delights and challenges of Scottish golf, especially the links, with their spectacular coastal views, rumped fairways, undulating greens, pot bunkers and ever-present sea breezes. Courses like Royal Aberdeen, Montrose Links and Musselburgh are historic layouts where the golfing forefathers once strode the sheep-cropped turf with their hickory clubs, whilst courses such as Trump International and Kingsbarns are creations in the modern era that still look like they have been part of the landscape since then.

"Castles & Golf" (1800 words)

ANDREW MARSHALL & PAUL MARSHALL travel to Scotland to sample some world-class golf while being their own 'Kings of the Castle.'

"Highlands & Islands-A Scottish Golf Journey" (1938 words)

It's a claim that's often made – 'Machrihanish Old' situated miles from anywhere on the craggy west coast of the Kintyre Peninsula has the best opening hole in Scottish golf. With the Atlantic Ocean pounding away to the left, ever-present cross winds and a long beach carry, this 436-yard par-4 is a nerve-jangling start to our golf journey - travelling through spectacular and remote island and mountain landscapes while playing an old classic, a couple of new designs and a recently discovered gem.

"Bars & Pars of St Andrews" (1900 words)

Andrew Marshall and Paul Marshall sink some putts and pints at the 'Home of Golf'

"Classic Links of Scotland" (1500 words)

From dramatic links courses steeped in history, to hidden gems and some new layouts, Scotland may just have everything a true golf lover could wish for, says ANDREW MARSHALL.

"Gourmet Golf Cruising" (2000 words)

Add a unique dimension to a Scottish golf tour, and journey by barge through lochs and along the scenic Caledonian Canal . ANDREW MARSHALL & PAUL MARSHALL take their clubs aboard the Scottish Highlander:

"Scotland's Golf Coast" (1800 words)

From some of the world's oldest golf courses to dramatic new layouts, the East Lothian region provides an inspirational setting for the travelling golfer. Golfing brothers Andrew & Paul Marshall tee it up along Scotland's Golf Coast...

SPAIN

"Tee Times & Tapas" (2000 words)

There's much more to the 'Golden Isle' than the beach scene. How about the historic capital of Palma, the picturesque mountain village of Deià, ancient castles, fantastic caves, the spectacular Serra de Tramuntana mountain range and a rich local gastronomy. In addition, the good news for golfers is that for its size, Mallorca is well supplied with 24 quality courses and several are within chipping distance of Palma.

"Birdies in the Canaries" (1700 words)

With our important cargo of golf clubs and supplies safely stored inside our hire car in the vehicle hold below, it's the beginning of a week-long Birdies in the Canaries golf trip by ' car, ferry and plane', teeing it up on some of the best tracks on the islands of La Gomera, Tenerife and Gran Canaria.

"The Magnificnt SEVEN" (A Golfer's Guide to Gran Canaria – 7 Places to Play, 7 Places to Stay and 7 Off course attractions) (1600 words)

The quality of the island's renowned sandy beaches is now matched with a superb collection of seven main 18-hole golf courses, that experts rate as among the best in Spain – with layouts that not only entertain and challenge, but allow you to experience the island's varied and dramatic scenery in all its glory.

"Costa Golf" (1,868 words)

Spend a few days in Spain's Costa Brava to discover a region of world-class golf, cultural attractions, gourmet cuisine and fine wines...

SWEDEN

"Cool Golf around Stockholm" (1200 & 1800 words)

Since the first Swedish golf club, Gothenburg, was founded in 1902 and quickly followed two years later by Stockholms Golf Klub, the popularity of the sport has grown dramatically. In fact, demand for golf clubs outstrips supply with several new courses in the pipeline.

USA

"Pars & Stripes" (1200 and 1800 words)

Buy your airline ticket, pack your golf clubs and get ready to unleash your inner Jordan Spieth, Rory McIlroy or Jason Day. Here's a bucket list of ten of the best public golf courses in the USA...

"Desert Greens – LA to Las Vegas" (1000 & 2000 words)

The tougher the environment, it seems, the more spectacular are the golf courses built in it. ANDREW MARSHALL hits the road from Los Angeles to Las Vegas in search of some of the best places to swing a club in the States. Road trips in the States don't come more quintessential than Los Angeles to Las Vegas via Death Valley. All the classic imagery is there in abundance; film locations, roller-blading Californian blondes, lone roadside motels, highways stretching to infinity, buzzards circling cloudless skies and diner breakfasts. And for serious golfers, this is a true place of pilgrimage.

Golfing Myrtle Beach (1500 words)

This is the scene. It's a hot and humid June afternoon at Myrtle Beach airport in South Carolina, and after loading my golf clubs and luggage into the back of my hire car, I drive south on Hwy 17, along the 60-mile stretch of coastline known as the Grand Strand. Situated at the northern end, is the Vegas-like atmosphere of Myrtle Beach itself with its sizzling nightlife, shopping malls the size of small towns and endless giant billboards advertising seafood buffets, live shows and theatre. Located only a dozen or so miles further south, but feeling like a world away are the tranquil enclaves of Murrells Inlet, Pawleys Island and Georgetown that still retain their 19th-century rhythms.

One common denominator is that there are around 100 championship golf courses located in the Myrtle Beach and Grand Strand region. Greg Norman, Robert Trent Jones, Jack Nicklaus, Tom Fazio and Pete Dye are just a handful of big name designers who have laid out stunning tracks - some face the beautiful Atlantic Ocean while others line the picturesque Intracoastal Waterway. Throw in several courses that are listed as 'America's Top 100 Courses To Play', Golf Magazine's 'No.1 Value Golf Destination' and 'No.1 Buddy Golf Destination', plus a great climate, excellent seafood and a plethora of outdoor activities, and its little wonder that Myrtle Beach is billed as 'The Golf Capital of the World'.

VARIOUS

"36 Reasons We Love Golf" (1270 words)

Golf: a sport where grown men and women use several different sticks to hit a small ball into an area with very short grass surrounding a small hole in the ground. Yep, that's pretty much the gist of a pastime that's been fascinating and frustrating us in equal measure for centuries. What follows are 36, (or two round's worth) of reasons why we love this amazing game...

"Golf Course Styles" (890 words)

One of the wonderful aspects of golf is that wherever you play in the world, no two courses are alike. From the wild, sheep-tended links of Askernish Old in the Outer Hebrides of Scotland, the forested mountainside track of Chateau Whistler in British Colombia to Nevada's Wolf Creek set high above the desert floor among red-rock canyons and glistening creeks, the variety of golf courses is astounding.

"Island Golf Escapes"(2000 words)

There is something extra special about playing golf on islands. Due to their compact size, islands are self-contained, easy to get around and the courses are inevitably situated right next to the coast offering spectacular ocean views. Travelling to these island courses is all part of the adventure; it may mean catching a ferry, taking a small plane or driving along twisting and narrow clifftop roads that take longer than expected to navigate, but it is time well spent in anticipation...

Scotland- Inner & Outer Hebrides, Spain- Canary Islands. Canada- Prince Edward Island & Vancouver Island. Caribbean Islands.

"Around the British Isles in 3 shots" (1800 words)

Every golfer loves a great par-3 and there is something magical about hitting a crisp wedge close to the pin on a short hole or a towering hybrid to the green on a long one. Par-3s are often the most picturesque holes on a course and in many cases the most difficult ones. Whether it's an elevated tee, a heart-pumping carry over a lake, a hidden green or one encircled by deep pot bunkers - it is often tricky to make par. What follows, are a dozen memorable par-3s throughout the British Isles – some have earned their reputation as original and influential holes, while others are just waiting to be played on your next golf trip away.

"Planet Golf" (10 of the world's best courses) (1200 words)

Buy your airline ticket, pack your golf clubs and get ready to unleash your inner Tiger Woods. Here's a fantasy golf vacation to play ten of the most spectacular golf courses from around the globe...

"Whose your caddy" (300 words photo essay)

Photo essay of caddies from around the world with introduction and enlarged photo captions.

"Around the UK in 18 Holes"

A composite round of 18 holes on various courses in N.Ireland, Ireland, Wales, Scotland & England)

"Classic Par-5s of the British Isles" (1200-1500 words)

We travel around the British Isles to play 10 of the best par-5s

"Scandinavia to a Tee" (1500 words)

Golf in and around the 3 Scandinavian capitals, Copenhagen, Oslo & Stockholm including off -course attractions)

"Golfing the British Isles" (6 of the best coastal golfing regions) (1800 words)

A feature about great regions for golf in the British Isles with around 200/250 words on each, with top picks to play: SCOTLAND - Angus Coast, WALES - North Wales , IRELAND – Causeway Coast, ENGLAND - Kent Coast, ENGLAND - Northumberland Coast , ENGLAND- Lancashire Coast.

"Golf regions of England" (5 of the best) (1500 words)

A piece about great regions for golf in ENGLAND with about 300 words on each, with top picks to play: Kent Coast, Yorkshire, Northumberland Coast, Cornwall, Lancashire Coast.

" Top 10 -Opening & Finishing Holes in the British Isles" (1500 words)

We take a journey around the British Isles to play a top-drawer collection of memorable opening and finishing holes from various courses.

"Golfer's Dozen - Caribbean & USA" (2,400 words)

Buy your airline ticket, pack your golf clubs and get ready to unleash your inner Jordan Spieth, Rory McIlroy or Jason Day. Here's a bucket list of some of the best courses in the Caribbean and USA...